Chapter 1 by Max Moses Coen

I could feel the monster on my back. I had been hiding for an hour my body was in the dream state which meant I would be teleported to danger. I could feel the beady sweat rolling down my face as I hid. Five more minutes I kept telling myself Five more minutes. During these days the darkness had increased and few lights such as me existed. We where people that manipulated light. The darkness had exterminated much of the lights however me and my father are still alive and fighting the darkness. Five minutes gone. I stood up and faced the monster lights shone from my hand and a slow trickle of light came from my eyes. I fired some white flames at the monsters but before I could reach the monster, I woke up.
